

Charlotte Bowen Shahan, '52, is teaching the 5th grade in Norfolk, Va. She and Dixon would enjoy having you call on them some time at 9275 Phillip Ave., Norfolk 3, Va. Mrs. Shahan visited the college Thursday, April 22, and told Mrs. Cooper that Dixon would be the Navy one more year.

Jane Grey Campbell '44, 414 La Salle, Colorado Springs, Colorado, is married to Colonel A. Campbell and has two sons.

Mrs. Thelma Taylor Mills '39, enjoys substitute work in the Yorktown Elem. School, Yorktown, Va. Her home address is Seaford, Va.

Margaret Sherwood Wagner, 2511 McNeilly Road, Pittsburgh 26, Pa., is teaching fifth grade at Bridgeville Borough School, which is 7 miles out of Pittsburgh. Miss Wagner, who completed her two yrs. work at S.T.C. in 1932, was graduated with the first three year class in 1933, and came back for her B.S. in 1946.

James H. Holden, A.A. Degree in '53, is majoring in electrical engineering at the University of Del. His address is Box 543, University of Delaware, Newark, Del.

Thomas B. Williams, '53, is employed as a staff member for Vice-President of Philadelphia Franks Co. He and his family live at 72-3 Drexel Hill, Pa.

Leta Trice Chesbrough, '44 is teaching a class of mentally retarded children in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Laura Clendaniel '48, (Mrs. Marshall H. Bruce) 1531 New Jersey Ave., Manor Park Apt., New Castle, Del., is back in the teaching profession. Since leaving S.T.C. she has had 1 yr. graduate study at the University of Maryland.

Hazel Dunnock Kready, '44, is teaching first grade near Bristol, Pennsylvania.

"Joe Roe" who transferred to Western Maryland after one year at S.T.C. is professor of Mathematics at Woodberry Forest School for boys. He was professor of Math. at the St. James School for boys for five years, before going to Woodberry Forest, Va.

Patricia Purnell (Mrs. J. Edwin Dabbs) has moved in her new home at 1522 Charlotte Ave., Anniston, Alabama.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Fry, '53, are now in Albuquerque, New Mexico. Mr. Fry was teaching in Harford County until called in service a few weeks ago.

Dr. Verlin A. Krabill has been appointed assistant professor of poultry pathology at the University of Delaware. His headquarters will be at the Agricultural Substation near Georgetown, Delaware.

Virginia Spencer, '51, teaches the second grade at McDonough Military School. The head mistress says, "Virginia is a jewel of a teacher and the best we have ever had." She is radiantly happy in her work.

Vendell E. Shawn, Jr. is now employed as assistant Executive Secretary-Registrar at the Baltimore College of Commerce, Franklin & Cathedral Streets, Baltimore 1, Md. Mr. Shawn attended S.T.C. for two yrs, 1940-42; transferred to the University of Maryland September 1942, where he received his degree B.S. M. Ed.

Mary Wysong, '50, has been very busy. She enjoyed a trip to the West Coast last summer. She teaches the third grade at Upper Falls, Md. Some how she found time out for the ceremony which changes the word Miss to Mrs. Will she find time now for her Scout work, and writing her Grange Minutes?

After more than fifteen years in the teaching profession, Carolyn Evans Abercrombie, '36, has decided to take time out to plan for her baby. She lives at 1034 Elmridge Ave., Baltimore 29, Maryland.

Amanda Ebling Fisher came back to S.T.C. for the first semester of last year and completed the necessary work for her B.S. Degree. She is teaching the third grade at Denton this year.

Marah E. Williams, '28, teaches the fifth grade at Winfield Elem. School. Since 1928, Miss Williams has received her Bachelor of Arts Degree from Western Maryland College, and Bachelor of Science, State Conferred.

Mladys Mullinix (Mrs. Lewis Wisner) '30, has no time for teaching in the public schools since all hours are spent with her family. She enjoys working with her seven sons and two daughters. Their ages range from 7-19.

Lay Stoops, '53, is teaching English and Social Studies in Crisfield High School this year.

Mrs. Irma Brewington Dumford and Mrs. Virginia Lee White had a party at Mrs. Dumford's new home, 10516 Sweetbriar, Silver Spring, Md., for several members of the Alumni in Montgomery County. This party was arranged to bring our Alumni together and send a contribution of $5.00 to the treasury to help with financing the Alumni News Bulletin.